HELP NEWCASTLE HOCKEY CLUB FIND AUSTRALIA'S NEXT HOCKEY STAR

Hockey Australia and Hockey New South Wales are excited to announce that the Newcastle Hockey Club is running a Hookin2Hockey program in 2011.

Hookin2Hockey is Hockey Australia's national recruitment program and provides an environment where young participants learn the fundamental skills of hockey in a safe and fun environment.

After over four thousand excited youngsters participated in newly formatted Hookin2Hockey in 2010, the program is back in 2011 ready for another successful year.

Newcastle Hockey Club is running the Hookin2Hockey program to provide children with the opportunity to learn basic hockey skills in the hope of finding the next Australian hockey star such as Jamie Dwyer (pictured) of the Kookaburras (four time world player of the year) or Casey Eastham of the Hockeyroos (2009 world young player of the year).

Every participant can receive a participation pack which includes a fold out backyard hockey goal, a t-shirt with the newly designed Hookin2Hockey logo, a sweat band and a welcome message from one of the Hockeyroos or Kookaburras.
